

My Lips Are Sealed

Music and Lyrics by Bill Peppers, Hal Blair, Ben Weisman

I promise you she'll never know
That once we loved each other so
The past we knew I'll not reveal
My lips are sealed

My heart may cry with every beat
Without your love I'm not complete
It doesn't matter how I feel
My lips are sealed

Let there be laughter
Not one single tear
And ever after
Let your fears disappear

If you love her as I love you
Forget the past I led you through
Just don't look back it's all concealed
My lips are sealed

--Instrumental--

Let there be laughter
Not one single tear
And ever after
Let your fears disappear

If you love her as I love you
Forget the past I led you through
Just don't look back it's all concealed
My lips are sealed
